2 Duke of York

34, York Road, Salisbury, SP2 7AS
Tel. 01722 503872 Find us on facebook

Located in a quiet back street, this friendly single bar pub is a reminder of how community pubs used to be. It is now a freehouse, having been an Ushers pub for many years.

Directions: Exit Salisbury Station by the main exit, and turn left. Walk down South Western Rd until you reach Fisherton St. Turn left and pass under the railway. When you reach St. Paul's Roundabout, either use the subways to bear right, and emerge and join York Rd, or cross Wilton Rd and bear right using the cul-de-sac to reach Devizes Rd. Turn left into York Rd where the pub is a short distance along on the right.

Walking time:
around 15 mins

1, Bridge Street, Salisbury, SP1 2ND
Tel. 01722 438400
jdwwetherspoon.com/pubs

This Wetherspoon pub is roomy and child-friendly, with outdoor seating and lodgings. Originally known as The Ram, it was named The King's Head in 1528 in honour of Henry VIII. It then became the County Hotel and is now The King's Head Inn again.

over the river bridge, under which flows the Avon.

Walking time:
around 15 mins

4 Haunch of Venison

1, Minster Street, Salisbury, SP1 1TB
Tel. 01722 411313
haunchpub.co.uk

This gastro-pub, dating from 1320, has a tiny snug, tile-floored bar, wooden beams and panelling, pewter counter-tops and a chilling story about a card-player's hand.

Tel. 01962 842701 greeneking-pubs.co.uk

Dating back to 1002, this may be the oldest pub in the country! It is on several levels, the basement being the most characterful part, and heavy oak timbers feature strongly. The adjacent Tudor building and narrow alleyway outside add to the historical feel.

Directions: Exit Winchester Station from Platform 2. Walk down Station Hill ahead of you, and use the subway to cross under Sussex St. to join City Rd. At the junction, turn right into Jewry St. and walk along until it meets St. George's St. on the left. Turn left down this road and you will find Royal Oak Passage on your right. The pub is in this alleyway.

Walking time:
around 15 mins

25 The Hyde Tavern

Admiral Taverns

57, Hyde Street, Winchester, SO23 7DY
Tel. 01962 862592 Find us on Facebook

This small traditional pub has a relaxed atmosphere without piped music or television and is known for its live music performed in the cellar by local bands. There is a beer garden and real ales are served. No food is prepared on the premises, but you are welcome to bring your own, or order some in, subject to a small charge for the supply of plates and cutlery.

Directions: Exit Winchester Station from Platform 2. Walk down Station Hill ahead of you and use the subway to cross under Sussex St. to join City Rd. At the junction with Jewry St. turn left into Hyde St. Follow

Hyde Street all the way along until you reach the pub on your right.

43 The Ferry Restaurant

Elephant Boatyard, Land's End Rd, Bursledon, SO31

8DN Tel. 023 8040 2566 ferryrestaurant.co.uk

This floating restaurant is actually a former Itchen chain ferry, which operated between Woolston and the opposite bank of the river. A covered dining area sits between two outer decks with extra seating. Owing to its small size, there is a more limited food menu here. Not a pub as such, but rather a restaurant that also serves drinks. A novel venue for any special occasion.

Walking time:
around 7 mins
